

Safety Outside of the Home

bmc.org/autism | autismprogram@bmc.org | 617.414.3842

Disclosure: The Autism Program is not sponsored or related to any of these companies or services.

NOTE: Before paying out of pocket, talk to your child's medical team about funding options. If you are in need of a letter on your behalf of your child supporting your need for a tracker or medical identification, reach out to the BMC Autism Program at:

(617) 414-3842

autismprogram@bmc.org

Tracking Devices

Tracking devices are a great option if you want to keep tabs on where your child is located. It can be lifesaving if your child is prone to wandering. Tracking devices come in different forms such as a bracelet, anklet, watch, or clip-on. Below you'll find different kinds of devices at varying price points. Click on or scan the QR codes for more product information!

Wrist Wearable Tracking Devices

SafetyNet Tracking Systems

SafetyNet Tracking Systems has services all over Massachusetts and is partnered with public safety agencies to ensure that children with special needs are returned to their caregivers safely and quickly. They offer watches and bracelets for children.

Price: $120+, available for free through their company program*

SafetyNet

Project Lifesaver

Project Lifesaver is partnered with police stations throughout Massachusetts. To get a tracking device a call must be made to the police station to see what kind of availability they have. A list of police stations that are partnered can be found here.

Price varies.

If cost prohibited, speak to your PCP or DBP about financial assistance*

Project Lifesaver Guide

TickTalk 4

The Tick Talk 4 is a child friendly smartwatch without internet, games, or social media. It has many features including voice and video calling, talk-to-text messaging, twin HD cameras, and an activity tracker, along with other kid-friendly features. Parents/caregivers can manage contacts, track real-time locations, set up school mode, and ensure safety with the advanced Parental Control App. Best for children ages 5-12.

Price: $189.99 + $9.99/month*

TickTalk 4

Verizon GizmoWatch 2

The Verizon GizmoWatch 2 is a child-safe smartwatch with parental controls, no internet access, GPS tracking, an SOS button, voice calling, and text messaging. It is a great tool for keeping track of your child and keeping them safe.

Price: $99.99 + $35 activation fee

Verizon GizmoWatch 2

Safety Outside of the Home

Disclosure: The Autism Program is not sponsored or related to any of these companies or services.

Clip on Tracking Devices

Amber Alert GPS

Amber Alert GPS is a more personalized clip-on GPS tracker. It syncs to your phone through an app, sets "safe zones," and calls through the device.

Price: $154.99+

Amber Alert GPS

Angel Sense

Angel Sense is another personalized clip-on GPS tracker. It is difficult to remove, using a special magnetic key, making it great for children. There is an SOS feature on it and a way to speak to the parent/caregiver through the device.

Price*: From $229 + $44.99 per month

Angel Sense

Jiobit Smart Tag

The Jiobit smart tag is a battery powered wearable tag that uses multiple methods of connection including GPS, Cellular, Wifi, and Bluetooth to ensure it always stays connected. It allows Geo-fencing and will send alerts to a connected smartphone about live tracking updates.

Price: $129.99 + $16.99/month

If cost prohibited, speak to your PCP or DBP about financial assistance

JoiBit Smart Tag

Short Range Bluetooth Trackers

*Bluetooth trackers have limited ranges

Apple AirTag *Range is ~30 feet

Apple AirTags are tiny trackers that provide secure location information via Bluetooth signals detected by nearby Apple devices.

Price: $29

Apple Airtag

Tile Trackers *Range is 100-200 feet

Tile Trackers are small Bluetooth trackers that connect to nearby smartphones. Tiles are similar to AirTags but they work with non-Apple devices.

Price: Starts at $24.99

Tile Trackers

Treasure Trace Underwear

Treasure Trace Tracking Underwear are a discreet and comfortable way to always know where your child is.

They feature a tamper-resistant pocket that fits most BLE (Bluetooth low energy) trackers making for uncompromised tracking.

Price: $24.99

Treasure Trace Underwear

Air Tag/Tile Holder for Kids Shoes

An easy way to make sure your tracker stays on your loved one.

Air Tag Holder

Tile Holder

Price: $8.99/$9.99