

10 Questions MY FUTURE

1

What are some things you feel you do well?

Think about what you already succeed at—everyone has unique talents. You can even ask your family and friends what they see as your strengths.

Adapted from:

2

What challenges you?

The different things that you find difficult could be opportunities to move towards your goals and explore new ideas. They also might be areas of study and work that will keep you interested in the future!

Adapted from:

3

What do you like to do for fun?

Think about what the common characteristics are between the different things you like to do. How do these bring out your strengths?

Adapted from:

4

Who do you look up to?

The people you admire can tell you something about who you are and what you value. What is it that you like about them? This could be a family member, friend, teacher or even a celebrity.

Adapted from:

5

What's something you've always wanted to try?

Why does this sound appealing to you? What is stopping you from trying it? What would you hope to get out of it?

Adapted from:

6

What accomplishment has made you most proud?

Your answer could be anything—the time you got an A, the time you won that game, or even the time you helped someone else in need. What you are proud of can help you see what matters most to you.

Adapted from:

7

If you could do any job for a day, what would it be?

If you could choose a one-day career right now, what would it be? Why do you find it so appealing? Is there anything you would change to make it fit you better?

Adapted from:

8

What's your favorite class?

Think about which classes make you lose track of time. Do you like the teacher? The subject? What makes you enjoy it so much?

Adapted from:

9

What do you read about in your free time?

Your favorite books, websites, or even apps can show what really makes you curious.

Adapted from:

10

As a kid, what did you want to be when you grew up?

Thinking about your childhood dreams might help you realize what you are truly passionate about!

Adapted from: 