

Autism Data Engagement and Partnership Team COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD

Are you interested in sharing your expertise to help guide how autism research and clinical care is planned, understood, and shared? The Autism Data Engagement and Partnership Team (ADEPT) helps to make sure that key information about individuals with autism is effectively communicated from the autism community to researchers AND from researchers back to the community. ADEPT is inviting you to join a community advisory board and collaborate to help make sure autism research is community-informed.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Age 18+
- Family members of autistic children and adolescents (ages 2-26), including parents/caregivers, grandparents and siblings
- Individuals diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Professionals, including clinicians, service providers, school nurses, special education teachers, and community advocates who support community members with autism

ABOUT YOUR ROLE:

- Attend quarterly 1-hour advisory council meetings
- Share your feedback on autism-related research priorities and study approaches
- Take part in group discussions and share your opinions and perspectives based on your experiences
- Receive compensation for your time and expertise
